AN ACT

To repeal sections 454.507, 454.512, and 454.515, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof three new sections relating to child support.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Sections 454.507, 454.512, and 454.515, RSMo, are repealed
2 and three new sections enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as sections 454.507, 3 454.512, and 454.515, to read as follows:

454.507. 1. In addition to the authority of the division to request
2 information pursuant to section 454.440, the division may request information 3 from financial institutions pursuant to this section.

4 2. As used in this section:

5 (1) "Account" includes a demand deposit, checking or negotiable
6 withdrawal order account, savings account, time deposit account or money market 7 mutual fund account;

8 (2) "Encumbered assets", the noncustodial parent's interest in an account 9 which is encumbered by a lien arising by operation of law or otherwise;

10 (3) "Financial institution" includes:

11 (a) A depository institution as defined in Section 3(c) of the Federal 12 Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C. Section 1813(c));

13 (b) An institution affiliated party as defined in Section 3(u) of the Federal 14 Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C. Section 1813(u));

15 (c) Any federal credit union or state credit union, as defined in Section 16 101 of the Federal Credit Union Act (12 U.S.C. Section 1752), including an 17 institution affiliated party of such a credit union as defined in Section 206(r) of 18 the Federal Credit Union Act (12 U.S.C. Section 1786(r)); or EXPLANATION—Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in this bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted in the law.

19 (d) Any benefit association, insurance company, safe deposit company, 20 money market fund or similar entity authorized to do business in the state.

21 3. The division shall enter into agreements with financial institutions to 22 develop and operate a data match system which uses automated exchanges to the 23 maximum extent feasible. Such agreements shall require the financial institution 24 to provide to the division, for each calendar quarter, the name, record address, 25 Social Security number or other taxpayer identification number, and other 26 identifying information of each noncustodial parent who maintains an account at 27 such institution and who owes past due support, as identified by the division by 28 name and Social Security number or other taxpayer identification number. The 29 financial institution shall only provide such information stated in this subsection 30 that is readily available through existing data systems, and as such data systems 31 are enhanced, solely at the financial institution's discretion and for its business 32 purposes, the financial institution shall provide any original and additional 33 information which becomes readily available for any new data match request.

34 4. The division shall pay a reasonable fee to the financial institution for 35 conducting the data match pursuant to this section, but such amount shall not 36 exceed the costs incurred by the financial institution.

37 5. The division or a IV-D agency may issue liens against any account in 38 a financial institution and may release such liens. If a non-custodial parent 39 is more than fifteen days in arrears of child support, then the financial 40 institution shall place a hold on the non-custodial parent's 41 account. The hold placed on the non-custodial parent's account shall 42 prevent the non-custodial parent from purchasing real or personal 43 property and from starting a business.

44 6. (1) If a notice of lien is received from the division or a IV-D agency, the 45 financial institution shall immediately encumber the assets held by such 46 institution on behalf of any noncustodial parent who is subject to such 47 lien. However, if the account is in the name of a noncustodial parent and such 48 parent's spouse or parent, the financial institution at its discretion may not 49 encumber the assets and when it elects not to encumber such assets, shall so 50 notify the division or IV-D agency. The amount of assets to be encumbered shall 51 be stated in the notice and shall not exceed the amount of unpaid support due at 52 the time of issuance. The financial institution shall, within ten business days of 53 receipt of a notice of lien, notify the division or IV-D agency of the financial 54 institution's response to the notice of lien.

55           (2) Within ten business days of notification by the financial institution 56 that assets have been encumbered, the division or IV-D agency shall notify by 57 mail the noncustodial parent of the issuance of the lien and the reasons for such 58 issuance. The notice shall advise the noncustodial parent of the procedures to 59 contest such lien pursuant to section 454.475 by requesting a hearing within 60 thirty days from the date the notice was mailed by the division to the 61 noncustodial parent.

62           7. (1) Except as provided in subsection 6 of this section, the interest of 63 the noncustodial parent shall be presumed equal to all other joint owners, unless 64 at least one of the joint owners provides the division or IV-D agency with a true 65 copy of a written agreement entered prior to the date of issuance of notice of lien, 66 or other clear and convincing evidence regarding the various ownership interests 67 of the joint owners within twenty days of the financial institution's mailing of the 68 notice of lien. The financial institution shall only encumber the amount 69 presumed to belong to the noncustodial parent. The division or IV-D agency may 70 proceed to issue an order for the amount in the account presumed to belong to the 71 noncustodial parent if no prior written agreement or other evidence is provided.

72           (2) If a prior written agreement or other clear and convincing evidence is 73 furnished to the division, and based on such agreement or evidence the division 74 or IV-D agency determines that the interest of the noncustodial parent is less 75 than the presumed amount, the division or IV-D agency shall amend the lien to 76 reflect the amount in the account belonging to the noncustodial parent or shall 77 release the lien if the noncustodial parent has no interest in the account. In no 78 event shall the division or IV-D agency obtain more than the presumed amount 79 of the account without a judicial determination that a greater amount of the 80 account belongs to the noncustodial parent. The division or IV-D agency may by 81 levy and execution on a judgment in a court of competent jurisdiction seek to 82 obtain an amount greater than the amount presumed to belong to the 83 noncustodial parent upon proof that the noncustodial parent's interest is greater 84 than the amount presumed pursuant to this subsection.

85           (3) For purposes of this subsection, accounts are not joint accounts when 86 the noncustodial parent has no legal right to the funds, but is either a contingent 87 owner or agent. Such nonjoint accounts shall include, but are not limited to, a 88 pay-on-death account or any other account in which the noncustodial parent 89 owner may act as agent by a power of attorney or otherwise. Furthermore, when 90 any account naming the noncustodial parent has not been disclosed to the 91 noncustodial parent which is evidenced by a signature card or other deposit 92 agreement not containing the signature of such noncustodial parent, then for the 93 purposes of this subsection, such account shall not be treated as a joint account.

94 (4) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a financial 95 institution shall not encumber any account of less than one hundred dollars.

96 8. Upon service of an order to surrender issued pursuant to this section, 97 any financial institution in possession of a jointly owned account may interplead 98 such property as otherwise provided by law.

99 9. Any other joint owner may petition a court of competent jurisdiction for 100 a determination that the interests of the joint owners are disproportionate. The 101 party filing the petition shall have the burden of proof on such a claim. If subject 102 to the jurisdiction of the court, all persons owning affected accounts with a 103 noncustodial parent shall be made parties to any proceeding to determine the 104 respective interests of the joint owners. The court shall enter an appropriate 105 order determining the various interests of each of the joint owners and 106 authorizing payment against the obligor's share for satisfaction of the child 107 support or maintenance obligation.

108 10. The court may assess costs and reasonable attorney's fees against the 109 noncustodial parent if the court determines that the noncustodial parent has an 110 interest in the affected joint account.

111 11. The division may order the financial institution to surrender all or 112 part of the encumbered assets. The order shall not issue until sixty days after 113 the notice of lien is sent to the financial institution. The financial institution 114 shall, within seven days of receipt of the order, pay the encumbered amount as 115 directed in the order to surrender.

116 12. A financial institution shall not be liable pursuant to any state or 117 federal law, including 42 U.S.C. Section 669A, to any person for:

118 (1) Any disclosure of information to the division pursuant to this section;

119 (2) Encumbering or surrendering any assets held by the financial 120 institution in response to a lien or order pursuant to this section and 121 notwithstanding any other provisions in this section to the contrary, encumbering 122 or surrendering assets from any account in the financial institution connected in 123 any way to the noncustodial parent; or 124 (3) Any other action taken in good faith to comply with the requirements 125 of this section.

126 13. A financial institution that fails without due cause to comply with a

127 notice of lien or order to surrender issued pursuant to this section shall be liable 128 for the amount of the encumbered assets and the division may bring an action 129 against the financial institution in circuit court for such amount. For purposes 130 of this subsection, "due cause" shall include, but not be limited to, when a 131 financial institution demonstrates to a court of competent jurisdiction that the 132 institution established in good faith a routine to comply with the requirements 133 of this section and that one or more transactions to enforce the lien or order to 134 surrender were not completed due to an accidental error, a misplaced computer 135 entry, or other accidental human or mechanical problems.

454.512. 1. The division shall [periodically] report the name of any 2 noncustodial parent who is more than fifteen days delinquent in the payment 3 of support and the amount of overdue support owed by such parent to consumer 4 reporting agencies defined in 15 U.S.C. Section 1681a(f).

5 2. The noncustodial parent shall be provided notice and a reasonable 6 opportunity to contest the accuracy of the information before such information is 7 reported to a consumer reporting agency under procedures adopted by the 8 division.

9 3. Before referring information to any entity pursuant to this section, the 10 division shall ensure that such entity has provided evidence that is qualified as 11 a consumer reporting agency.

454.515. 1. A judgment or order for child support or maintenance payable 2 in periodic installments shall not be a lien on the real estate of the person against 3 whom the judgment or order is rendered until the person entitled to receive 4 payments pursuant to the judgment or order, the division or IV-D agency files a 5 lien and the lien is recorded in the office of the circuit clerk of any county in this 6 state in which such real estate is situated in the manner provided for by the 7 supreme court and chapter 511, RSMo. Thereafter, the judgment shall become 8 a lien on all real property of the obligor in such county, owned by the obligor at 9 the time, or which the obligor may acquire afterwards and before the lien expires.

10 2. Liens pursuant to this section shall commence on the day filed and 11 shall continue for a period of three years. A judgment creditor, the division or 12 IV-D agency may revive a lien by filing another lien on or before each three-year 13 anniversary of the original judgment. At the time each lien is revived, all unpaid 14 installments shall remain a lien for the subsequent three-year period.

15 3. The lien shall state the name, last known address of the obligor, the 16 obligor's Social Security number, the obligor's date of birth, if known, and the 17 amount of support or maintenance due and unpaid.

18           4. A copy of the lien shall be mailed by the person entitled to receive 19 payments under the judgment or order, the division or IV-D agency to the last 20 known address of the obligor.

21           5. The person entitled to receive payments pursuant to the judgment or 22 order, the division or IV-D agency may execute a partial or total release of the 23 liens created by this section, either generally or as to specific property.

24           6. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, if a non- 25 custodial parent is fifteen days in arrears on child support payments, 26 a lien automatically shall be filed on the non-custodial parent's real 27 estate by the division or IV-D agency.
